

I feel strongly that XM Satellite Radio should be able to continue broadcasting instant traffic & weather. I don't live close enough to any of the local broadcasting stations of the large cities to hear their reports of traffic or weather. When I have to travel to any large city, I rely on the reports of XM Satellite Radio. Please don't take this fine service away from people that are not close enough to hear the reports from local radio. Thanks.